Hi All,

Just so you know, the Breast milk letter Health Consultation from Oregon Health is officially ready to go. I've attached the PDF. Let me know when it's time, and I am ready to send a hard copy to LWG.

As it turns out, getting the letter approved by ATSDR only means that I get productivity credit for it and not that there is any kind of ATSDR stamp of approval on the document itself. However, it is still an official document as far as Oregon DHS is concerned (see letterhead).
